CHRIST'S CARE FOR CHILDREN: KENYA/PROJECT 24

Baptisms and Confirmation

Every year we have many celebrations of faith within the Project 24 community. As the children are continually nurtured by the local Lutheran pastors, evangelists and deaconesses, the children grow in their knowledge of the Lord. With their knowledge comes a desire to be baptized and confirmed in the faith.

This last month, we were able to celebrate several baptisms and confirmation of students who reside at our Project 24 site: Lenkishon. It was a wonderful event that was celebrated by the local Lutheran church. The bishop of the Diocese, Bishop Kispan Lenkishon, was also present and baptized the students.

We thank God for the continued work of the local church, teaching the children about Jesus. It is through their efforts that the children who reside at the Project 24 sites are cared for and learn about their great God.

Daily Activities that turn into blessings

A variety of activities happen daily as the children continue with their day to day schooling and Bible lessons. While the children are in school, the site managers, along with their boards, look for opportunities to partner with the community. Seen below, our P24 director, John Kissinger, recently attended a meeting at P24 site: Lenkishon along with the local chief, board of management and other community members. This meeting was the precursor to the actual connecting of electricity to the site (before they only had solar power) and digging of a borehole to provide water for the site and the surrounding community. The results of this meeting were celebrated. Electricity reached the site this last month and they are continuing to do research on obtaining a borehole in the compound. We thank God for these further steps in providing a good environment for the children.

Also, through networking efforts, our P24 site: Tumaini had a local women's group come and bless the children with food and school supplies. We thank the site management for recognizing the importance of community awareness and in turn, shining God's light all around.
