LWML 39th Biennial National Convention in Lexington, Kentucky, June 2021

BUS MUSINGS

by Paulette Huber, North Dakota District

To Convention we go, Lexington bound!
44 Women, 5 men on this bus can be found.
And Dan, our driver, professional and kind
Has only the best for his riders in mind.

At 5 am, in Fargo, early we board,
Southeast to Minnesota, thanking our Lord!
More join in Alexandria, St. Cloud, here it goes,
Filling the bus with excitement that shows!

Two Pastors aboard fill us up with the Word,
Devotions and studies, discussing what's heard.
Singing and praying, sharing His love,
And the blessings and gifts that come from above.

"Running the Race" — "Looking to Jesus",
A chant led by Esther, our bus guide, the genius.
Anticipation is mounting, we will take in it all,
Soon we'll arrive in the "Horse Capitol!"

As we visit and travel with sights much adored,
New friends are made, our faith one accord.
Many from Minnesota and some North Dakota
Completely filling this big bus's quota.

We were not disappointed, convention was great!
We listened and laughed and prayed and of course ate.
God blessed our convention with a spirit of joy,
The Word through the LWML to employ.

Speaking of Joy, our YWR,
Carrying the banner, a flag, not too far,
Excited to carry the LWML Mission
To the next generation, what an ambition!

Mission speakers amaze with their stories of hope
Of those who will benefit from the mites that we drop,
People in countries abroad and home too,
Will hear of the gospel and heaven anew!

Gertie and Marcie gave us all a good laugh,
Their lingo and stories made us all "split in half!"
President Debbie led us in a more serious way,
With strength and endurance for each special day.

Then to the Ark, what a sight to behold,
Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.
The Creation Museum, we left in a daze,
World views interpret in different ways.

Goodbye dear friends, may God go with you,
"Looking to Jesus" who loves you much too.
This silly old rhyme that we have set —
From the bus clown, Paul, and his wife, Paulette.

President's Message by LaurieAnn Totenhagen

"Running the Race ... Looking to Jesus!" Whew! What a week. Most of the attendees probably felt like they ran a race prepping their households and fridge/freezers for their family at home before they left to attend the LWML 39th Biennial Convention in Lexington. My weekend before convention was filled with all of that plus a Saturday morning attending a bridal shower for my youngest's fiancée and hosting her family. Saturday afternoon continued with a 70th wedding anniversary celebration for my husband's parents, their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren on our farm. The day began with one couple just starting out and looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, to live out a God-fearing marriage and ended with another couple who was a great example of enduring the trials and blessings of 70 years of marriage.

The MN North President and I headed out early Monday morning for our road adventure to Lexington. We arrived in Lexington on Tuesday and were ready for the new experience attending as District Presidents. We were led in Bible study "Easier to follow than to push" by the Pastoral Counselor. He used the example of Abraham, Egypt, and Adam and Eve as examples of people trying to take matters into their own hands without trusting in God to lead, even though He gave them His promise. We are never in the lead in "the Race." We look to Jesus and follow.

There is joy in following Jesus but:

- 1) Following Jesus isn't always easy — there is no promise of ease. We all have our crosses to bear
- 2) Following Jesus requires daily devotions and prayer. Jesus took quiet time to pray
- 3) Following Jesus always leads us to good places. Jesus is our Good Shepherd. He calls us by our name in our Baptism. We are His. Jesus leads and we follow.

The week ended with the funeral for my 96-year-old Grandmother who died June 10 in Las Cruces, NM. Her remains were brought back to ND with my uncle and his wife. My Grandmother's "Race" is done. Praise be to God that Jesus crossed the finish line for her and for us and as Christians we get the prize, the Crown of Glory. I have been blessed to have been surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses with faithful parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents.

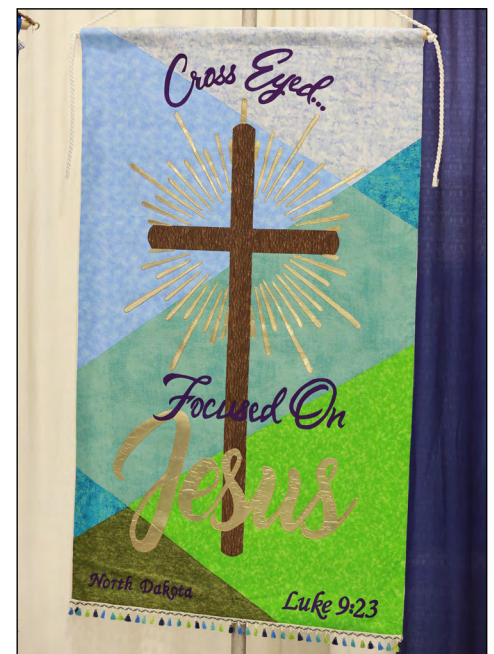

"Running the Race ... Looking to Jesus" in Lexington is complete. The preparations we did in order to attend convention are behind us, but the daily preparations of prayer, bible study, and devotions we need to "Run the Race" are never complete in this life.

Soon we will focus on the ND District convention "Cross-eyed ... Focused on Jesus" June 24–26, 2022. "And He said to all, 'If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me'" (Luke 9:23).

I encourage you to go to the LWML website (www.lwml.org/posts/news/enews) to read the eNews with all the highlights from the convention. There you will find the Mission Grants chosen, New Leaders, the Convention Offering amounts and recipients, the Gifts from the Heart donations, Mission pledge walk totals, and Tee up 4 Mites Golf Outing donations.

In Christ,

LaurieAnn Totenhagen, President of the North Dakota District LWML

“Blessed... to be Stressed?” by Pastor Dave Suelzle, Sr. Counselor

Do any of you know my usual response to the question, “How are you?” People who have encountered me over the years probably know what my response will be even before it leaves my lips.

Ephesians 1:3 says, Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places. What a solid confession of Christians who live in a world filled with turmoil, strife, self-righteousness, restlessness and an overall lack of peace — physically, emotionally and spiritually. Such an environment, coupled with your own personal struggles and spiritual battles, can make one feel stressed more than blessed.

In all fairness, the verse does say that we’ve been blessed... in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places. In other words, we’ve been blessed because Jesus has restored the everlasting life to us for which we were originally created by God (cf. 2 Corinthians 5:5). Yet, we still live in the earthly realm where life can feel more stressed than blessed, even with many physical blessings in our lives.

Still, Jesus gives you peace. He says in John 14:27, Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. When things seem hopeless from the world’s point of view you need not be stressed because Jesus is Lord and the peace He gives endures long after the world’s restlessness is over. When you are stressed because of attacks upon Christ in you as you publicly confess Him as Lord and Savior, the peace of God, which He gives, surpasses all understanding and will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus now and eternally.

Actually, recognizing that you are blessed in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places can cause you to be “stressed out” spiritually. How?

When you observe people living in the darkness of sin, desiring for them to know the peace which only Jesus can give, and then watch them reject His Person & Work. It stresses your heart with grief when people judge themselves unworthy of eternal life by rejecting Christ as their Savior from sin (cf. Acts 13:46).

Trusting in the atoning work of Jesus brings this peace. Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. (cf. Romans 5:1) This is the peace Jesus left with His disciples by offering Himself as the perfect sacrifice for their sins. The world cannot give you this peace.

The LWML is Lutheran Women in Mission. You strive to bear one another’s burdens (cf. Galatians 6:2) when stressed in the presence and pressures of a sinful world as you remind each other how blessed you are in Christ. You also strive to bring those spiritual blessings to others as your hearts feel stressed with a longing for those lost in their sins to experience His peace.

Join us in our Fall Rallies across the District as we delve deeper into the peace of Christ under the theme: “Blessed... to be Stressed?”

—Pastor Dave Suelzle, Sr. Counselor of the ND District LWML

North Dakota District YWR Attends Lexington Convention

The Young Woman Representative (YWR) for North Dakota District is Joy Robey.

Joy is a member of Zion Lutheran Church in Ellendale. Joy will be presenting a short report of her time at Lexington during our Fall Retreat, September 17–18 in Jamestown.

Among the many activities at convention for the districts'

YWR's was the Friday Luncheon. Young women and past YWR's also attended. An enthusiastic group, past YWRs shared their experiences and encouraged current YWR's to stay focused on God's Word, serve where their hearts are, and remember they are leaders who serve with kindness. LWML is an intergenerational group, and attendees discovered how much they were alike, no matter what their age.

Applications needed for LWML ND District 2022–2024 Mission Grants

Do you know of an organization who could benefit from the prayers and mites of the North Dakota LWML? As of June 15 the Mission Grant Committee has received zero grant proposal. There is not much time left to apply, and the LWML ND District Mission Grants Committee is eagerly awaiting your grant application for the next biennium. Applications are due by Sept. 30, 2021 and available at www.ndlwml.org.

We are looking for recipients who are Lutheran Church Missouri Synod entities or who have Recognized Service Organization Status with the LCMS.

Our bylaws state: Ministries seeking funding should (1) be mission in emphasis, extending the ministry of the Word; (2) fit into the plans and projections of the LCMS; (3) be current and ready for implementation; (4) be on-going in nature, continuing after the grant money has been expended.

I would love to help anyone who has an idea for a mission grant request. Please contact Sue Corwin, Vice President of Mission Grants at missiongrants@ndlwml.org if you need help.

28 National LWML 2021–2023 Biennium Mission Grants Selected

LWML Treasurer Karla Koehler announced Friday morning at convention, the new 2021–2023 mission goal of $2,150,000. Selected through virtual voting, this new mission goal will allow more funding to be directed toward missions. In the next biennium, mission grants will receive a 20% increase over the past. Following Karla's announcement, LWML Business Manager Vanessa Johnson announced that we exceeded the 2019–2021 mission goal, and that the amount over that goal will be added to the current biennium. This means that the actual amount available for mission grants is $2,221,176.15. What a blessing from God for the mission grants listed on page 7.

NEW MISSION GOAL FOR THE 2021–2023 BIENNIUM!

Delegates approved a mission goal of $2,150,000!

Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

Thank You Notes

May 26, 2021

Please extend the ND District's gratitude to the LWML for their support of our District youth ministry program. We received a check in the amount of $2,500 on May 26, 2021. The District rejoices along with the LWML how well the mites program gives aid for so many missions.

The District held their LYF Retreat in Carrington in March of this year. Pastor Adam Harvala led the Bible studies. As always, the District is grateful to Pat Sebastian and her leadership skills, along with her wonderful support staff that pulls the retreats together.

Again, thank you to the LWML for all your generosity and support.

Vicki Peihl; Office Manager North Dakota LCMS

"Through Jesus, then, let us always bring to God a sacrifice of praise, that is, the fruit of our lips praising His Name. And do not forget to do good and to share; for such sacrifices are pleasing to God." (Heb. 13:17-18)

May 26, 2021

Please extend the ND District's gratitude to the LWML for their continued support of our church workers financial aid program. A check for $8,500 was received in the District office on May 26, 2021. The District rejoices along with the LWML how well the mites program gives aid for so many missions.

There were eight ND students that applied for financial aid in 2020. Three students attended Concordia Seminary in St. Louis and one at Ft. Wayne, studying to become pastors. There were three students at Concordia, Seward, one in the Pres-seminary studies and two in the DCE program. Both DCE students graduated this year. One student attended Concordia, Mequon, WI, in the DCM program. After June 1, the District will get notices from the colleges of students wishing to apply for student aid for the school year 2021–2022.

Again, thank you to the LWML for all your generosity and support.

Vicki Peihl; Office Manager North Dakota LCMS

ND District LWML

Dear Friends:

Thank you very much for your generous mission grant of $7,500 to Orphan Grain Train, North Dakota Branch to be used where most needed.

We appreciate your helping in this mission to get humanitarian aid to needy recipients around the world and locally. Your gift is so valuable at this time. Thank you for helping keep Orphan Grain Train's wheels rolling towards those who need God's mercy.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Tom Boerger; Branch Manager North Dakota

"I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you" (John 14:18).

2021–2023 LWML Mission Grant #1

Deaconess Ministry at Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch

As one approaches the Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch campus in the Minot area, the first impression is one of passing into a beautiful campus of peace and tranquility. For the young residents of this facility, however, their young lives have been anything but peaceful and tranquil as they first arrive there. Most of these youngsters have experienced trauma and abuse almost unimaginable to us. Many of the young girls have suffered abuse at the hands of male figures and find it very difficult to relate to males especially in leadership roles. Deaconesses can and do fill a much needed role in this area especially to these young girls. The Deaconess' are highly trained in areas that will give much needed emotional and especially spiritual support to these girls. Many of whom have never learned of the love Christ has for them. The National LWML delegates overwhelmingly purposed a mission grant of $81,680 to fund the Deaconess program at the Ranch for the next biennium. This will allow many troubled lives to overcome their hardships and come to Christ. His arms are open wide to them as He welcomes them in to His fold of young lambs so needing the Great Shepherd.

"At the Ranch we help at-risk children and their families succeed in the Name of Christ."

Building Bridges into kid's lives — When kids are traumatized by abuse, neglect, or abandonment, horse therapy at the Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch can help children begin their move toward Christ-centered healing.

Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch's Deaconess Kelly Bristow making the Bible come alive for children during an outdoor chapel service on the Ranch's Minot Campus.

The doors to open a child's heart come in all forms. Music and song, in the hands of a vibrant Deaconess ministry, help kids discover successes they didn't know they could achieve.

One of the weekly chapel services on the Ranch's Minot Campus. Real ministry happens each week where children learn to see the world differently, feel the love of God through those who care for them, and begin to look to the future with hope.

Music has healing power at the Ranch. Deaconess Kelly Bristow and a student from the Ranch's Dakota Memorial School perform at the 2019 High School Graduation, uplifting the spirits of graduates, families and friends.
